Colonel Sir Oliver [illegible]
British Resident in Mysore
Bangalore

The humble petition of Yellappa Gavy an puttadar of Byadarhally Division Station of Bangalore
Most respectfully showeth: —

That your petitioner is the Kayam puttadar of Byadarhally consisting of Bangalore and pays to Government Rupees 400 and odd annually.

2 That some of the tenants of the said Kayam of the village, refuse to pay their annual assessment according to their kuchalikas, and thereby petitioner is put to much loss; and on the other hand he has to pay to the Government full Kayam Pootta amount.

3 The tenants refused to pay since last year on the ground that they have to pay the summafuli tax as well as the land tax. Your petitioner begs to submit

Lulement that they have all along paid the [illegible] Rate

Your petitioner therefore prays that Your Honour would be pleased to enquire into the matter and pass orders that the tenants limit for the land tax assessed or reduced as much amount as the tenants do not pay or be exempted from paying in the Rayamgoshta amount. and they may be ordered to pay 30 years cowle rent according to Ryotwari Rate

Your petitioner further begs to state that Government is bothering him daily much for the Rayamgoshta amount and therefore prays that the orders may be issued as early as possible.

And for which benevolent act Your petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray &c-

Is any remarks he may have to make in the case

H 25.V.91

The petitioner's only remedy is an action at law against his sub tenants. As a Ryotwar holder he is bound to pay the full fixed assessment on his village. If the Asst Resident & Revenue Commissioner think the Collector may be called on for a report and be requested at the same time to stay the sale

Please see the accompanying report from the Collector

RESIDENT'S OFFICE

OFFICE NOTE.

No. 35 of 1891

The Kayeenputtadar of Byadenhalli a village within the limits of the Co-Op. Station represents that the village is to be sold by Govt. on the 28th inst. for arrears of revenue (Rs 290 & odd) due to Govt.

1. N. 3

The default is due the petitioner says, to the refusal of his European tenants to pay about Rs 400/-

The Collector was suggested by this office in Sl. N. 2, petitioned on the subject, but the Collector endorsed him that the Revenue Authorities could not interfere in the matter of compelling the petitioner's tenants to pay their dues.

The petitioner should take steps to collect the dues in accordance with the laws on the subject. The petitioner, who is the owner of the village upon which a fixed quit assessment is levied is solely responsible to Govt. for its payment.

To

The British Resident in Mysore
Bangalore

The humble petition of Yellappa, Kayan Puttadar of Byadarahally Commutation of Bangalore,

Most respectfully showeth:—

That your Petitioner presented a petition to your Honour on the 23rd January 1891 regarding the payment of assessment of the Byadarahally village commutation of Bangalore, wherein petitioner stated that the European tenants numbers refusing to pay the land tax and municipal tax which they had been paying for the last 30 years and petitioner at the same time requested your Honour to direct such allowance as the tenants refuse to pay in the Kayamgoo to the amount and in reply your petitioner received an endorsement No 236/3591 dated the 23 of 23 January 1891 directing him to address the Collector on the subject

2 That your petitioner according to accordingly addressed a petition to the Collector regarding the subject, but he received an endorsement No 329 dated the 22nd April 1891 declining to interfere in the matter, a copy of which is produced herewith for your Honour's kind perusal

3. That in the meantime, your petitioner learns that the said village is to be sold on the 28th instant for arrears of Revenue of Rupees 290 and odd due to government

4. That your petitioner begs to submit that about Rs 4000-00 is due by European tenants to petitioner and they have not paid the same. and if the government authorities refuses to interfere in matters like this, how is the petitioner to pay the amount due to government

5. That your petitioner is an aged man of about 80 years and nearly blind and has many children and has no other means of living except by this village and he also find it very strange that a village of the value of Rs 33000-00 is to be sold for a small sum of Rs 290 and odd

Your petitioner most humbly prays:-

That the tenants may also be directed to pay the land tax to petitioner either has been paying all along or that land amounts as could be payable by tenants may also be remitted in his favour account.

That meals of the village may be postponed pending the decision of this petition.

And for which act of charity & benevolence Your petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray &c.
